

KOHL WILL BE TRIED FOR MURDER.

He May Be Convicted of Killing His Cousin Without the Testimony of His Wife.

Capt. Daly of the Third Newark precinct has last secured what he thinks is enough evidence to convict Henry Kohl of the murder of his cousin, Joseph Preinzel, and the charge against the prisoner has been changed from one of assault upon his wife to murder. Preinzel's body was found on June 3 in a shallow meadow creek near the Newark and New York branch of the Central Railroad.

There was a strap around Preinzel's neck, and several coupling pins were attached to it. The toe of his lining had been cut through in the mud, and his weighty seventy pounds were on the scales, even on the shoulders.

Mrs. Kohl had her husband arrested just after the murder, but he denied it at first, and said that Kohl had confessed to her that he had killed and robbed his cousin. She gave information which led Capt. Daly to the testimony of his wife, which would not be competent under the law preventing conviction on the testimony of wife against her husband or husband against wife.

Henry Kohl will probably be tried during the September term.
